

ber session 1828, chapter 145, and for other purposes, so far as the same relates to the several counties therein mentioned, was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr Buchanan, from the Select Committee, appointed on leave granted for the purpose, reported a bill entitled, an act to regulate the sale of Bread in Baltimore county; which was read the first and second time, by a special order; When,

On motion by Mr Buchanan, the bill was amended, by inserting after the words, 'eighteen hundred and twenty six,' in the sixth line thereof these words, "so far as relates to the weight and quality of the bread."

The said bill thus amended, was then passed.

Mr Irving, from the select committee, appointed on leave granted this day for the purpose, reported a bill entitled an act relating to the issuing of commissions to take testimony in certain cases; which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, and passed without amendment.

Mr Oldson, by a special leave of the house, moved the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay unto Gideon Pearce, or his order, the sum of one hundred dollars, out of any unappropriated money in the Treasury of the said Shore, as an additional compensation for his services, as chief clerk of the House of Delegates.

Which was read the first time, when,

Mr Oldson moved that the said resolution now have a second reading by a special order, suspending the 38th rule of the house, for that purpose.

And the question thereon being put,

It was determined in the negative; a majority, but not two-thirds of the members present, having voted in the affirmative.

The resolution was then ordered to lie upon the table.

On motion by Mr Donnelly,

The Committee on Ways and Means, to which on the 22d inst. had been referred the resolution received from the Senate, in favor of Martin Bourke and Thomas Morgan, was discharged from the further consideration thereof, and the said resolution laid on the table.

Mr Buskirk, from the Committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice to which was yesterday referred the bill reported by Mr Burchenal on that day, entitled an act compelling the President and Directors for Dover Bridge Com-
